In the space below (or in an attached statement), please describe the extenuating circumstances that contributed to your failing to meet the minimum standard(s) for satisfactory academic progress.

Extenuating circumstances for an appeal of satisfactory academic progress would typically include:

- Documented extended illness or hospitalization of student
- Incapacitation of the student for an extended period of time
- Death or illness of an immediate family member resulting in additional family responsibility by the student

Common situations that may NOT be considered as unusual circumstances and as a valid reason to make an appeal include:

- Family difficulties, such as divorce, separation, or financial problems
- Interpersonal problems with friends, roommates, significant others, or teachers
- Difficulty balancing work or family responsibilities and school
- Transportation issues, such as mechanical issues or bus schedules

Only appeals with supporting documentation will be considered. Acceptable forms of supporting documentation include statements from physicians or other health professionals, members of the clergy, and family members.

Please explain the reason for appealing. Write neatly and legibly. Attach additional pages if necessary.
