Student’s Responsibility

Capital Community College expects the student to initiate the application process in a timely manner, and considers it the student’s responsibility to complete the application on time. Incomplete applications will not be reviewed. Students and their families should be aware that they are completing applications for federal, state, and college funds. Students are also expected to be familiar with the general provisions of financial aid. To help you understand this process, Financial Aid Workshops are held throughout the year. Information on financial aid programs, regulations, and procedures are found in the College catalog. Deliberately misreporting can result in criminal and civil liabilities. Late applicants will be awarded on a funds available basis. Application materials cannot be accepted after the student’s last date of attendance.
Getting Started

Capital Community College is participating in a pilot project with the System Office of the Connecticut Community Colleges to encourage students to electronically apply for student financial aid. Our effort supports the activities of the U.S. Department of Education in making electronic delivery of student financial aid a reality for all students. We hope to improve our services to students and assist you in completing the financial aid process.

Important – You do not have to own a personal computer to participate in this project or to apply for financial aid from Capital Community College. However, you do need to have use of a computer with Internet access. Many public libraries, high schools, adult education centers and community centers offer free access to students. Also, you have access to many of the computers available for student use at Capital Community College. These computers are available for use at the Welcome Center, Financial Aid Office, Library and Learning Center.

To participate in this electronic pilot project, you must have a basic understanding of a personal computer and Internet use. If you don’t, please contact us at the Welcome Center (520-7969) or the Financial Aid Office (520-7827) at Capital Community College.

Step 1 Getting an e-mail address

It is essential that you possess an e-mail address to participate fully in this endeavor. If you do not already have a personal e-mail address, you can obtain one for free at many web sites on the Internet. For example, both Yahoo! (www.mail.yahoo.com) and MSN Hotmail (www.hotmail.com) provide e-mail services for free. You will provide your e-mail address to both the U.S. Department of Education and Capital Community College, and both of us will communicate with you about your financial aid application by sending information to your e-mail address.

By the way, you can get an e-mail address in just a few minutes. Just follow the above step.

Step 2 Applying for a PIN (Personal Identification Number)

It is important that you apply for a PIN. For the 2002-2003 Award Year, you can obtain a PIN electronically by going to the government’s PIN site (www.pin.ed.gov). If you are not sure whether or not you have a PIN already, you can go to the same web site to check. Now that you have an e-mail address, the Department of Education will e-mail you directions as to how to obtain your PIN from a secure web site. Allow 3 days to secure your PIN from them.

Your PIN serves as your password to access private information on the U.S. Department of Education’s web site. You can also use your PIN as an electronic signature when completing your FAFSA on the Web.

Step 3 FAFSA on the Web

To apply for financial aid from Capital Community College you must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). You will need to visit the FAFSA on the Web (www.fafsa.ed.gov) site for the application. You will need personal information documents to complete the electronic application.

Step 4 Using Online

The Student Information System

Now that you’ve applied for financial aid from the U.S. Department of Education and Capital Community College, you can apply for financial aid electronically. You can use the internet to apply for federal aid and awards and award information on the Internet by using Capital Community College’s Online student information system (www.online.commnet.edu).

Step 5 Your Financial Aid Award

When we complete our review of your financial aid application we will notify you at your e-mail address and direct you to the Online student information system. You will be able to view your Financial Aid Award and make decisions about your awards over the Internet. We will assume that you want to accept any grants (free money) that you are eligible for, but there may be additional awards (like student loans or work-study jobs) that you have the option to accept or decline.

By using Online, you can review and adjust your financial aid awards, complete award requirements, and e-mail the financial aid office with your questions and concerns. Your use of the student information system allows you 24 hours/day, 7 days/week access to the Financial Aid Office of Capital Community College.
